Polish manufacturer

Contract Snowboards is looking to recruit one British rider to its "Support Young Shredders" sponsorship program.

To find the UK's best unsigned talent, the folks at Contract have created a unique online photo competition. If you think you have the tricks and style Contract is looking for, visit www.contractsnowboards.com/shredbattle to submit your best photo.

You can also find out more about the massive hoard of prizes for the winner and runners up, check out other riders' entries and find out about Contract's revolutionary Snake Transition and T.R.I.P technologies.

Registration for the competition starts 1st February and finishes on 26th March.
