

World Cup Skiing on 4 - Sestriere

Thursday, 07 February 2008

Nick

Fellows will be joined on the Women's World Cup tour by special guest former Austrian No.1, Michaela Dorfmeister who will provide expert commentary on the race action.

In addition to the thrilling race action we will provide a round up of the women's tour to date and highlight the contenders for the all important Crystal Globes that are looming ever closer.

Britain's own Chemmy Alcott will be bringing you her ski fitness advice in our regular Fit to Ski section

We also be offering viewers the opportunity to win a holiday in Val d'Isère. The winner and a friend will receive half board accommodation in the Chalet des Neiges with a 6-day ski pass for the whole Val d'Isère/ Tignes ski area. The prize also includes return flights from London Gatwick, transfers and the services of a ski rep for the duration of your stay, courtesy of YSE.

On Monday night Nick Fellows and Michaela Dorfmeister will bring you the extended highlights of the Women's Downhill but we will also feature the Men's slalom from Garmisch, Germany with commentary from Patrick Winterton.

On Tuesday night World Cup Skiing will bring you Ski Jumping from Zakopane and sprints from Canmore. Expert commentary will be provided by Patrick Winterton.

The week draws to a close with the Snowboard and Freestyle World Cup presented by Nick Fellows. Raz Cobbing provides commentary on the Bardonechia half pipe and also the Leysin SBX.

For the most wintersport action on terrestrial TV don't forget to tune into Channel 4 this winter!

Sunday 10th February 2008 7.55 am Women's Downhill, Sestriere