

Freestyle and Nordic Finals from Valmalenco

Thursday, 27 March 2008

World Cup Skiing on 4 brings you the thrilling conclusion of the Freestyle and Nordic Skiing and Snowboarding seasons as World Cup Skiing on 4 continues its coverage of the World Cup Finals from Valmalenco, Italy.

Â

7:55 a.m. Sunday, March 30

Nick Fellows presents this power-packed episode. Former Aerial Silver Medalist Richard Cobbing will commentate on all the Snowboard and Freestyle Skiing Finals events. This includes action from Snowboard Cross, Men's and Women's Snowboard Half-pipe, and Men's Parallel Giant Slalom. Keep an eye on British hope Dan Wakeham in the Snowboard Half-pipe as he attempts to bring the U.K. glory on the World Cup stage.

In the Nordic world, Patrick Winterton will provide a roundup of the Ski Jumping Finals and the final Cross Country Skiing races.

Also, tune in on Sunday as World Cup Skiing on 4 presents an in-depth feature on the Crystal Ski Challenge. Amateur skiers get the chance to train with the British Ski Academy before competing against each other in a series of races. See how they all fared this Sunday.

Remember to join World Cup Skiing next Sunday morning, April 6 for the British Championships of Skiing from Meribel, France.

And as always, count on Channel 4 to bring you the best wintersport coverage on terrestrial TV.
