O2-The Kiss 100 Slopes

Friday, 21 November 2008

Following the success of The Beach and The Ice Disco, this winter The O2 invites you to hit The Slopes, London's first ever indoor artificial twin ski slope.

Running from late November to January 09, visitors will be able to ski, snowboard or snow tube at The O2, making it THE London winter attraction.

The twin slopes, both 45 meters in length will bring the whole skiing experience even closer to the people of London. Not only will visitors be able to learn to ski or snowboard but The Slopes will be open to experienced skiers to warm up their ski/snowboard legs before heading to the mountains. Book your tickets now
